Peek Inside the Book

What, after all, was the point of civilisation if not the well-being of citizens? Ann Leckie, Ancillary Justice //

Nearly everywhere I've been, popular wisdom has it that the location of humanity's original planet is unknown, mysterious. In fact it isn't, as anyone who troubles to read on the subject will discover, but it is very, very, very far away from nearly anywhere, and...

Reader's Opinions

What's the point? Admittedly, science fiction isn't my favorite genre, but if you're looking for a novel with a concept that would be intriguing were it not the the novel's centerpiece, and completely unsupported by story - well, this is your book. Ancillary Justice is barely more than its concept. The slim plot unfolds oh so slowly...
