

THE DETOUR

The new novel, set in the UK, from the author of the Impac Prize-winning bestseller The Twin. A Dutch woman, a university English lecturer researching the work of Emily Dickinson, rents a farm in remote, rural Wales. When she arrives, there are ten geese living on the farm, but one by one they disappear. Perhaps it's the work of a local fox. The reason for her move abroad gradually becomes clear: her husband is trying to track her...

Reader's Opinions

Faultier than most books I'd give four stars. It's just that the scenario is terribly similar to All The Birds Singing by Evie Wyld, which got 3.5, and I like this a little better. Like All the Birds, it's a second novel and a literary thriller, in which a foreign woman is living on a remote British farm, on the run from something or...

Wat een pareltje, deze roman van Gerbrand Bakker. Prachtig 'kaal' geschreven, zo passend in de sfeer van het landschap waar het verhaal zich afspeelt: het Welshe platteland van begin van de winter. Bakker laat veel van de innerlijke belevingswereld van zijn hoofdpersoon...
