Peek Inside the Book

So now the sky was falling. Maybe the end of the world. Maybe Jesus coming again. That suited her. White lights shot across the sky. She lost count. She stood and watched through Sidney's telescope and felt. For the first time in a year she wasn't ice cold all the way to her...

Good idea. I'll do it. Mary Connealy, Sharpshooter in Petticoats //

Reader's Opinions

This is the third book in the series Sophie's Daughters and just as good as the previous books. Right from the first page there is drama and it just keeps coming. I can't say I was upset to see Mandy's husband had died as he was worthless as a husband and caused nothing but grief. I really like Tom he seems just right for Mandy. What...
