Reader's Opinions

Chicken Feed recounts a tumultuous few days in the lives of a number of people involved with what we in the U.S. would call a flea market. Simply put, Chicken Feed is a fun read. The authors tangle and untangle the characters' lives in a lighthearted and somehow affectionate manner. The book introduces several memorable characters. The...

Interesting read and it managed to keep my interest barely throughout. A bit of a poor man's Sweeny Todd, but with a couple of interesting twists.
