

GINNY GORDON AND THE BROADCAST MYSTERY

The Hustlers are having a used book sale at their lending library when a rare and valuable book of Mrs. Arnold's is mistakenly donated. When Mrs. Arnold attempts to recover the book, all the Hustlers are certain they did not sell it, but it cannot be found. Ginny tries to solve the mystery of the missing book, while other mysteries abound: the identity of a bitter young woman who moves to Harristown and all the pranks and confusion at the lending library. The whole time, Ginny...

Reader's Opinions

I must have really liked this book when I read it 50-some years ago. Problem was, I forgot all about Ginny Gordon and did fruitless searches for Nancy Drew and the Broadcast Mystery, then Trixie Belden and the Broadcast Mystery. I may have owned all 5 Ginny Gordon mystery books. I am going to check the covers, because I recognized this...
