Reader's Opinions

I'm very proud of this book and the authors' work within. Here is what others have been saying: Tara L. Masih has assembled a stunning collection. . . . The range of cultural diversity and personal complexity packed into this slim, beautiful volume is staggering and far outstrips any other collection out there. . . .

Now I know why reviewers of this book said they wanted to reread it -- the essays are that good, and they almost beg to be reread. Each essay is by a very good writer: not only is that evident throughout the work here, but it also shows in the impressive credentials many of them have achieved. The standouts for me were a couple in 'the...
