Peek Inside the Book

I gripped her, drowning, and I loved her more than anything on this widegreen earth. Kate Quinn, Empress of the Seven Hills //

Reader's Opinions

Okay, I've waited a year for the release of this book. Two years really, considering it's a kind of sequel to Quinn's debut 2010 novel, Mistress of Rome (which I loved). I've been hoping and praying since I'd heard about Empress... being written that it would match up to its predecessors high standard. My God. This book is all kinds...

In his tattered lion skin and his spotless battered armor he looked broad and powerful, sunburned and deadly. They should carve you in granite and put you on display in front of every legion recruiter in...
