Reader's Opinions

Dark, twisted, surprising, and creepy. These are the words I would use to describe this book. Right from the word "go," I was drawn into the dark dystopian world of Jake and Tom. Jake's quest: to see the evil empire of Rixton taken down by nature in its rebirth; Tom's: to find his wife and son, and save them from the game "New Reality,"...

Having read Crash and Crash 2 by Michael Robertson, I was excited to learn that he had a New Reality series as well. I was offered the opportunity to read New Reality: Truth in exchange for an honest review. I jumped at the opportunity. This book was a bit of a surprise for me. It does take place in a post apocalyptic earth, a bit similar...
