

MURDER IN THE BUFF

Reporter Molly Darter must obtain the family-placed obituary of a dead nudist to keep her job at the weekly paper. With her husband's infidelity stamped on her mind, she doesn't want anything to do with naked people. But the dead woman is a friend, the nice lady from the Marshview organic produce stand. The nudists insist Barbara Jean didn't die of natural causes. Though their murder claim rattles Molly,...

Peek Inside the Book

if he knew how upset I was for opening my big fat mouth. Im sorry about what happened in there. I shouldnt have told Mama about Joseph Theodore Page being on Teds birth...

Reader's Opinions

A wonderful book and storyline This is my second book by this author and I look forward to reading more. Another small town runs into trouble with the death of a nudist women which seemed to be natural causes from a heart problem. However the Lady oh...

Ted Page of the Marshview Gazette shouldnt have sent Molly Darter to Naturist Woods. Her aversion to nudity was only surpassed by her fear of snakes. This was a life or death assignment as her journalistic life hung in the balance. What should have been a follow-up obituary soon became both...
