Peek Inside the Book

There was a fine line between fear that would excite and fear that would paralyze the senses. Cherise Sinclair, Club Shadowlands //

Reader's Opinions

I should point out I am reviewing the series, not this particular book. But it would essentially be the same for all books anyway. I read these when I don't want to think, when I'm bored and just wanting light entertainment. They are basically the same thing. Everybody is awesome, what are the chances! Single Sexy Girl stumbles into...

Every once in a while a book comes along that grabs at your the literary brain cells. That you read and immediately want to read again, that while you're reading it, you can't put it down, you don't want it to end, you want to shout to everyone you know that they MUST, MUST read this book! You think...
