Reader's Opinions

The first story in this collection of two long short stories or short novellas was impossible for me to read - I quit about four pages in, feeling like I had been locked in a room with a bunch of awful people and...

When I finished reading Suite Francaise, I told myself I was going to read everything and anything Irene Nemirovsky had written. With Le Bal & Snow in Autumn, I'm starting to make good on that promise. This book consists of two short novellas. The first one, Le Bal, is about a...
