Reader's Opinions

Commander Gideon lays his career on the line in opposition to budget cuts. The Yard is already understaffed to the point that criminals are escaping through the thin police lines. Even if his press campaign wins support for Scotland Yard, he will probably be in trouble with the Home Secretary for taking internal politics...

This series about Commander Gideon of Scotland Yard, his staff, and his family improves with each volume. This is the fifth. John Creasey, writing under the name J. J. Merrick, concentrates on the members of the Yard in this story, and characterizations,...
