

BENDING DESTINY

Barbara Mahoney, known behind her back as Bossy Barbs, excels at all things practical and insists that almost all life's problems can be fixed with her hammer—and her in charge! But her accustomed mastery of events unravels when she is confronted with a village myth, linking her future to a complete stranger. And if that isn't enough to throw her off course, a...

Reader's Opinions

An infectious novel of community, extraordinary individuals, and life choices and its a joy to read! If you like Jane Austen, I think youll find Anne Barclay Morgans Bending Destiny easy to love but the action takes place in the (North American) present, its very much a book for today, and comparisons dont do it justice. Just let the...
